

IN THE UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT FOR THE MIDDLE DISTRICT OF PENNSYLVANIA, HARRISBURG DIVISION

IN RE:	:
MATTHEW & AIMEE SULLIVAN	:
And
SANTANDER CONSUMER USA INC.	:
MOVANT	:	CHAPTER 13
	:	Case No : 1-17-00670-RNO
Vs.	:
MATTEW & AIMEE SULLIVAN
CHARLES J. DEHART, III TRUSTEE,	:
Respondent	:

ANSWER TO MOTION FOR RELIEF OF THE AUTOMATIC STAY

AND NOW, comes Respondents, Matthew & Aimee Sullivan, by and through their attorney, Gregory S. Hazlett, Esquire, and answers this Motion for Relief from Automatic Stay:

1. ADMITTED:

2. NO RESONSIVE PLEADING REQUIRED:

3. ADMITTED:

4. ADMITTED:
(A)—ADMITTED
(B) ADMITTED
(C) ADMITTED

(D) 1. DENIED: Counsel for the debtors lacks sufficient information to confirm the balance of this account

2. DENIED: Counsel for the debtors lacks sufficient information to discern the level of arrearages if any owing to the movant as of the date of the underlying Motion for Relief.

5. DENIED:

(A) DENIED: Counsel for the debtor lacks sufficient information to confirm or deny the level of arrearage if any owing to the movant.

WHEREFORE, the debtors respectfully requests that the Honorable Court deny the movant's Motion for Relief from the Automatic Stay for the aforementioned reasons.

8/16/2018

Respectfully submitted,

s/s Gregory S. Hazlett, Esquire
Gregory S. Hazlett, Esquire
7 West Main Street
Mechanicsburg, PA. 17055
Phone:(717)-790-5500